FOR CONGRESS.

In obedience to the requests of Democrats in this district, and in accordance with my desire to be of service to the Democratic party and the country, in critical and important times, I announce myself a candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

As a loyal Democrat, I have always supported the nominees and platforms of the Democratic party and I now support the platform adopted by the late National Democratic Convention, held at Chicago.

I am sincerely grateful for the cordial support given me by the Democrats of the Eighth Congressional District in the past, and I have tried to show my appreciation of their confidence and kindness, by increasing efforts, to be a faithful and efficient Representative.

If honored by the nomination, I believe, I can with the aid of my brother Democrats, redress the district, and in the future as in the past my best efforts shall be given to the faithful discharge of the duties required of me.

JAMES B. MCCREARY,
March 15, 1898. Richmond, Ky.

ON the first day of the present month THE RECORD reached the ninth milestone of its existence. Three years of this has been under the present management. Only those who know something of newspaper work can appreciate the difficult task of publishing a newspaper in Lancaster. In the last twenty years ten different publishers, some of them old and experienced men, have tackled and given up the job. The question is often asked why it is thus. The reason is simply because the job and commercial work which should be given the home paper is sent to foreign concerns. A drummer came here a few weeks since and took orders for enough job work to almost pay the running expenses of THE RECORD for a month. Of course these business men have a perfect right to send their orders to Halifax, if they choose to do so, but the rub comes in when they bring their axes to our office to be ground. Let some of their relatives die, and THE RECORD must spend half a day studying up good things to say about them. When a little sugar-coating is to be done, why "we will let THE RECORD do it, as its the home paper," but giving THE RECORD a job of work is a different matter. If we were not prepared and equipped for doing job work, it would be different.

We took the paper having neither cash or experience. Today we have none of the former but a great, heaping pile of the latter. Our subscriptions are all now due again, and if our friends will come up and pay same promptly it will enable us to pay a lot of interest and begin our third year on fairly good ground.

THE Louisville Courier Journal has made arrangements to get the New York Herald's war correspondence. The Herald has arranged to cover developments in the most complete manner possible. By means of this arrangement with the Herald, at a very large extra expense to itself, the Courier Journal gives its readers assurance that they will have the quickest, best, most accurate and most comprehensive dispatches regarding all that may transpire during the American-Spanish struggle. This service will be in addition to the regular service of the Associated Press and that of their own special correspondents. With such excellent provision for the collection of the news, in conjunction with the unexcelled mechanical facilities possessed by the Courier Journal, the readers of that paper have a guarantee that they will be served in a manner which can not be approached by any other paper in this territory, nor surpassed by any other newspaper anywhere.

We will send THE RECORD and the Daily Courier Journal to any address one year for $6.43, and will make the same liberal offer to any of our subscribers who will pay a year in advance. You can't beat this offer. Think of it—you get all the war and general news, together with your home and county news one year for only $6.43. Try it.

ASSISTANT Adjutant General Forrester, who stands close to Governor Bralley, says that up to the present the government has not given any notice to Kentucky that this State may be called on for either men, money or supplies. In the event the President calls on the Governor for an appropriation, Col. Forrester said he presumed the Governor would call the Legislature together for this specific purpose. In the event of war Col. Forrester does not think it probable that the State militia will be ordered out in a body. "I presume," said he "that the officers of companies would be accepted first, because of the advantage they would have in drill. The rank and file of militiamen, of course, would be preferred over raw volunteers, but I do not anticipate that it will be made compulsory on them to go to the front, as there will be no necessity for a long time at least."

THE fellow who crowds into his little cranium the idea that he can say what he pleases about any and everybody, that fellow is as sure to have his toes turned to the daisies as five cents is to buy a beer in a local option town. The latest of this class to give up the ghost is W. C. Brann, editor of "Brann's Infidel," which publication has scorched Texas from centre to circumference for some time past. Brann published an article reflecting upon the character of the daughters of Capt. Davis, of Waco. The two men met, a duel ensued and both were killed. Publishers who are continually slinging mud at people may flourish for a time but when the wrong man's toes are stepped upon, as is sure to be done sooner or later, the fur is made to fly in so lively a manner as to be a warning to other to go slow in their attacks.

THE war situation is still at a white heat. The latest special we could get is taken from the Louisville Times, and is as follows:

Word comes straight from the White House that no message will be sent to Congress today, Thursday. A cablegram has been received from Minister Woodford that has opened up negotiations again. This message from Woodford communicates the desire of the Queen Regent to take matters in her own hands with the probability of all concessions being made necessary to avoid war. The news that the President's message has been postponed and that the delay of hearing from him is now uncertain soon spread on the floor of the House and caused a commotion among the members. There seems no doubt that another diplomatic hen is on again. How long she will continue to set is conjecture. It is reported that so important are the negotiations about to be opened that nothing will be heard from the President until Monday. It is believed now that the early statements from the White House that the President was waiting for Lee and the Americans to get out of Havana was misleading, and that he was really awaiting a dispatch from Woodford, who cabled last night, it is learned, that he would have an important communication to make about midday and not let the message go to Congress until he was heard from. On the Senate side it is claimed by members who are in the confidence of the President that no more negotiations are on, but the postponement of the message is due to advice from Gen. Lee relating to the departure of Americans from Havana. This statement is insisted upon by several administration Senators, who deny that the Queen Regent wants to make concessions.

MARKSBURY.
Mrs. J. R. Haselden sold to T. I. Herring, a yearling colt for $15.
J. C. Boner sold to B. G. Fox, of Danville, a nice harness horse for $100.
Rev. T. H. Campbell delivered an excellent sermon at the Fork Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. M. Kuykendall.

Mrs. Kate Aldridge has broken up house-keeping and gone to live with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Haselden, at Lancaster.
Mr. J. L. Broadbush has been confined to his room for several weeks. We hope that he will soon be out again.
The sale of J. G. Aldridge, deceased, was largely attended, and property sold well. Cows from $35 to $45, horses $15.50 to $20, sow and five shoats $23, wheat $1.05 per bushel, corn $1.95 per barrel, meat and lard 6-1-2c to 10c per pound. The farm was rented to the highest bidder for $145.50.

Miss Elvree Bradshaw, of McCreary, is visiting her brother, Mr. Wm. Bradshaw. Mrs. Tom Woods, of Lincoln, spent part of last week with Mrs. M. P. Rout. Master Francis Lawson is visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Moore. Miss Lida Arnold, is better at this writing. Wm. Lear spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, in Lincoln, who is suffering with a sprained ankle. Miss Julia Par's entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening, and all report an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Aldridge and little daughter, Irene, of Broadhead, visited friends here last week and attended the sale of their father. Mrs. Sam Hughes and children, of Danville, spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. N. H. Bogie. Miss Ruth Aldridge, who has been quite sick all winter is now able to visit her cousin, Miss Ruth Ann Dunn, near Lancaster. Mr. N. H. Bogie made a flying trip to East Hickman last week, and Messrs. Mason Pollard and George Boner took care of the store during his absence. Mr. W. M. Guiley, from Cincinnati, passed thro' our little village on wheel, en route to see his mother, who is suffering with a broken ankle.

A little boy asked for bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can," the druggist recognized a household name for "DeWitt's Little Early Risers," and gave him a bottle of those famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, liver and stomach troubles. Stormes' Drug Store. 1m

MCCREARY.

J. A. Walker and W. B. Burton of Buckeye, went to Danville Saturday. The friends of Herbert Guiley will be glad to know he is rapidly improving after an illness of several weeks of pneumonia. Mrs. L. Guiley fell while walking in her yard last Tuesday evening, breaking a bone in her ankle and causing a severe sprain along the broken bone. A very painful wound, but she is doing very well at this writing.

Miss Carrie Hardin has moved the post office to the store-room formerly occupied by J. W. Hill. W. M. Guiley, of Lexington, came over Monday to see his mother, Mrs. L. Guiley. Sheriff J. B. Saunders and Miss Sallie Arnold were married Tuesday at 4 p. m. at the home of the bride's father Mr. H. C. Arnold, Eld Bailey, of Richmond, performing the ceremony. The many friends of both wish them much joy and happiness. Miss Jennie May Guiley has returned from Orrville, Ohio, where she has been attending school. H. H. Pherrigo made a flying visit to Buck Creek the latter part of last week. He says business of importance took him.

BUCKEYE.

None of our citizens attended Richmond court Monday.

Joseph Simpson bought of James Litteral one calf, at $15.
Small pox and war are the only subjects being discussed now.

Rev. V. T. Willis preached a good sermon at Chapel, Sunday.
Miss Malinda Ward, a maiden lady, of 73 years, was buried at Buckeye, Monday.

Moses, a son of Mr. Buck King, was taken to the Lexington Asylum Saturday night.
A pretty little girl, Maggie Dean, arrived at the home of John Dickerson on the 29th ult.

Our Sunday school opened with flattering prospects. A large number of pupils enrolled.
Messrs. Joseph Hicks, Chas. Duncan and Johnson Grow, of Mt. Vernon, were at Buckeye Sunday.

Carpenters Herrod and Mike Ray, are building a new room, repairing and painting the residence of W. T. Noel. When finished it will be a lovely country home.

Mrs. Tim Logan has in her poultry yard a full grown chicken that only has one wing, but it makes a full hand at running, eating and crowing, no inconvenience about its make-up, until the unfortunate chicken wants to fly.

When your correspondent reached Lancaster Saturday afternoon, and caught sight of the flag floating in the breeze the first thought was, "War is declared," and I listened to hear the roar of the cannon.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Lancaster Ky.

WALLACETON.

(Delayed Letter.)

Born, to the wife of John Quinley, a son.

Several of our people here have been vaccinated during the past few days. The frequent rains and the warm weather have been quite favorable to wheat and grass, and both are looking well.

Sam Conn and family, who moved from here to Berea, three months ago, have moved back on account of the small-pox scare at Berea.

Miss Bettle Hendrickson, who has been teaching a subscription school here, closed with an interesting entertainment which lasted about two hours.

Uncle Charlie Anderson, who forgot that he was not still "one of the boys" and severely hurt his back while testing his strength two weeks ago, is able to be out again. Uncle Charlie says he "acted the fool in going into it."

Misses Maggie Elliott, Emma Ruth, and Ella Bowen, and Mr. R. G. Mitchell, who are attending school at Berea, spent vacation with home folks. Messrs. Reynolds, Mann, Yocum and Kinney, other Berea boys, were also visitors here.

On March 26th, 37 of the friends and relatives of J. A. Baker "went in on him" with a surprise birthday dinner, that being his 61st, birthday. Altho' it is usually very hard to "slip up on him," yet he owned that he was never more surprised in his life. While the weather was quite gloomy, and some of the parties came through the rain, yet within the house all was sunshine and happiness, and none enjoyed the day more than did the "Squire," although Mrs. Sue Wallace did eat more.

M. L. Yocum, Cameron, Pa., says "I was a sufferer for ten years, trying all kinds of pills remedies, but without success, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me. I used one box. It has effected a permanent cure." As a permanent cure for piles DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal. Stormes' Drug Store. 1m

FLATWOOD.

Mr. Milton Grayson has gone with his cattle to Richmond, to sell them, and will go on to the mountains and buy more.

Geo. Tankersley took $30 for his claim to the James Ross place, and will move to Berea.

Dave Andrews is building a house on J. C. Force's place.

R. F. Parson's gave a social at his house last Thursday night.

A very sad accident happened a few days since. Thomas Collett's mother, M. s. Trot fell Sunday night breaking her hip.

George Miller and wife spent Sunday at J. H. Miller's. Charming Miss Jennie Scott spent Friday night and Saturday with her sisters, Mrs. J. H. Miller and Mrs. Mose Lawson. Those Brewer and family spent Sunday at James Hankins. Mose Lawson and wife spent Sunday at S. B. Scott's. Mr. Frank Gross and wife have moved to the Henry Davis farm. Miss Maggie Ross, who has been visiting at Precherville, returned home Sunday.

In 1888 my wife went East and was attacked with rheumatism. She received no relief until she tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Since that time we have never been without it. We find it gives instant relief in cases of burns and scalds and is never failing for all rheumatic and neuralgic pains.—D. C. BRANT, Santa Ynez, Cal. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Lancaster Ky.

In Memory of Him Arnold.

On the 19 of March, the Angel of Death entered a happy home and bore away the beloved son and brother. It is hard to understand this mystery of God's love, that "Oie not tired of life's long day but glad in the freshness of its morning," should be called.

Though we know the end shall tell, The dear Lord doeth all things well.

'Tis hard to say he is dead, the genial, kind-hearted friend whose very life seemed to scintillate with cheerfulness, yet 'tis true he has passed from this earth, from all that it might hold of joy or of sorrow passed out into that eternity of God's love where, by virtue of that good confession he made years ago, the voice of faith says:

In that great cloister of stillness and seclusion, By guardian angels led, Safe from temptation, safe from sin pollution, He lives where we call dead.

Bereaved ones, though he is dead, he "yet speaketh," for the example of his cheerful, happy life cannot die but will live on in memory of his friends. "To live in hearts we leave behind is not for us to die." He was yours in life, he is yours now, even though he has passed away.

In all the pride of manhood begun, In all the hope of life yet to run; His Christ was buried, and lives away Trust Him and go your way.

March 29th 1898.

Thousands of sufferers from gripe have been restored to health by one Minute Cough Cure. It quickly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia, gripe, asthma, and all throat and lung diseases. Stormes, Drug Store.

LEAF.

Thieves are getting in their work in this neighborhood. A few nights ago somebody broke into D. C. Pullins' mill and took about five barrels of corn, and Wes Wren's cow was driven off, and some fellow that was anxious to work stole the double-trees off of a plow in the field of John Murray.

Corn is selling at $1.75 per barrel in market.

E. W. Norris bought of G. W. Pullins a bunch of 15 shoats for $39.

Some low down, sneak shot and killed C. B. Engleman's ball dog.

On account of the illness of his son, Hubert, Mr. J. W. Smith has declined the idea of going to Arkansas, and has rented the property of Mr. James Spillman, at Lowell, for the present.

E. W. Norris sold his crop of tobacco for $8.75 per lot, all around.

MT. HEBRON

The snow is very disagreeable and we are fearful there will be no fruit this year.

Rev. Lee, of Faulkner Station, will lecture at Mt Hebron next Sunday night. All are invited to attend.

Misses Mary Montgomery and A. E. Scott visited relatives in Burgin the latter part of last week. Mrs. Peggie Burdett is very sick at this writing. Mrs. Peachie Grow and Miss Luella Sherrow are visiting in Jessamine this week. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Williamsburg, were the guests of Mr. Marzee and family Sunday. Miss Luella Simpson is the guest of Miss Nellie Bourne.

Mr. Johnson Burk, of Jessamine, is at the bedside of his father, who is very ill.

Mr. E. D. Lawson bought two cows from Mr. Jarvis for $15 a piece.

Planters' NUBIAN TEA cures Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion. Regulates the Liver. Price, 25 cts.

BEAUTIFUL SEA SHELLS. Every one admires them. Since coming south I have received numerous inquiries from northern people for sea shells, and now I am prepared to answer yes. I can send you shells, for I have made quite a collection of lovely shells, both from our own coast, the coral reefs, and some beautiful ones from the West India Islands. I will mail a dozen, no two alike, to any one who sends a stamp for postage.

Yours, Mrs. F. A. WARNER, Jacksonville, Fla.

STONE.

Mrs. Mollie Eastman is still improving.

Wm. Simpson bought of Gabe Preston two sucking calves at $10 apiece. Lemuel Teater bought of Gabe Preston one yearling calf at $12.

Rev. Neal, of Winchester, will fill the pulpit at Scott's Fork the 3rd Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

Miss Mattie Saunders visited friends and relatives at Buckeye, Sunday night and Monday. George P. est n is on the sick list. Elsie Grow called on his best girl Sunday evening. Mrs. Peachie Grow is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Scott, of Little Hickman, and also her sister, Mrs. Mattie Roberts, this week. Mrs. Medie Stits, of Little Hickman, is visiting her mother, Mrs. James Murphy.

Miss Lizzie Thompson was called home last Thursday to attend the funeral of her cousin, Mr. Will Spillman, at Buena Vista, and also attend her grand mother's birthday dinner, Monday 4th inst., and has returned to finish her school at Pleasant Hill.

It is a great leap from the old fashioned doses of blue-mass and nauseous physics to the pleasant little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure constipation, sick headache and biliousness. Stormes' Drug Store.

He Would Be a Historian.

We reproduce the following which appeared in last issue of the St. Louis Republic. The writer is "C. W." Young, grand-son of Capt. White.

Lancaster, Ky., March 23, 1898.—Dear sir: I am a little boy just 12 years old. I thought I would try to write you all I could remember about the early history of Spain up to now. I love to read history and war stories. I hope some day to be a great historian. I like to read your paper. Hoping you will think my story worthy of publication in your valuable paper, I remain your friend.

CHARLES W. YOUNG.

THE HISTORY OF SPAIN.

Spain, or as it was called "Coriova," was founded by the Phoenicians about 900 B. C. After the Phoenicians came the Greeks, then the Carthaginians then the Romans, and the barbarians known as the Sevi, and Alans, and the Vandals, then the Gauls. It was then called Spain, and the people Spaniards. Their King was Roderick. He lost his life in a battle with the Moors. The Moors then had run of Spain. They built great palaces among these the Alhambra. They held Spain 790 years. They were driven out in 1492 in the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella. Ferdinand and Isabella's reign was disgraced by the Inquisition. Over 30,000 people were killed in this horrible inquisition. It was in 1492 Columbus discovered America. One of the powerful monarchs of Spain was Philip the Second. Philip intended to conquer England. To do so he fitted out a fleet known as the Invincible Armada, but it was destroyed by a storm. "In the year 1707, Charles the second died without children. He was succeeded by a young French Prince, named Philip. The Kings of this family were called the Spanish Bourbons." In 1808 Napoleon put the crown of Spain on his brother's head. "In 1870 the Spaniards invited the King of Italy to be the King." He was King two years. Spain then became a Republic. In two or three years they placed Alfonso XII, who reigned till 1885, when he died. Alfonso XII, is now King. On the 12th of February, 1898, the warship Maine was blown up by the vagabonds of Spain, by a submarine mine.
